Deferred Disposition is a suspended sentence (probation). On your plea of guilty or no contest, the Judge will defer the finding of guilt until a later date, assess the applicable fees, and order you to comply with certain conditions. If you successfully comply with the terms, your case will be dismissed.

However, if you fail to comply with the terms and conditions of Deferred Disposition a guilty judgment may be imposed and a conviction may be reported to the Texas Department of Public Safety in accordance with Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Art 27.14(c).
